Organizational Regulations of the FTZ

Article 1:

Introductory Provisions

- (1) The Organizational Regulations of the Faculty of Tropical AgriSciences (hereinafter referred to as FTZ) are based on Act No. 111/98 Coll. (the Higher Education Act), the Statute of the Czech University of Life Sciences Prague, and the Statute of the FTZ.
- (2) The Organizational Regulations of the FTZ regulate the structure of the faculty, its main self-governing, administrative, and advisory bodies, and its individual organizational units.

Article 2:

Self-governing Bodies of the Faculty

- (1) The self-governing academic bodies of the FTZ are:
 - a) Dean
 - b) FTZ Academic Senate
 - c) FTZ Scientific Board
 - d) FTZ Disciplinary Commission.
- (2) Another body of the faculty is the Secretary.

Article 3:

Faculty Management

- (1) The Faculty Management consists of the Dean, Vice-Deans, and the Faculty Secretary. They provide opinions on fundamental issues of faculty management in areas for which they are responsible to the Dean, and on activities requested by the Dean.

Article 4:
Advisory Bodies of the Faculty

- (1) The advisory bodies of the FTZ are divided into the Dean's advisory boards, working groups, and committees.
- (2) The Dean's advisory boards include, in particular:
 - The Dean's College,
 - FTZ advisory committees and other advisory boards established by the Dean as required.
 - The Dean's College: Convened by the Dean as needed. It consists of the Dean, Vice-Deans, the Secretary, and Heads of Departments. A representative of the FTZ Academic Senate may be invited as a non-voting member.
 - The FTZ Advisory Board (International Advisory Board): An advisory body consisting of international experts in the fields of agricultural, technical, natural, and socio-economic sciences, focusing on tropical regions and developing countries. The goal of the board is to maintain a continuous dialogue with partner institutions worldwide dealing with similar issues as the FTZ.
 - The Board for Cooperation with Practice: An advisory board to the FTZ Dean composed of prominent experts from the industry/practice.
 - Working groups and committees: Established by the Dean and, within their respective powers, also by Vice-Deans and the Faculty Secretary.

Article 5:
Operational and Administrative Bodies of the Faculty

- (1) The faculty's operational and administrative bodies are grouped under the Dean's Office and are divided as follows:
 - Dean's Office Secretariat: Manages the administrative affairs of the faculty, the Dean's agenda, and the Secretary's agenda.
 - Academic Administration Office (Study Administration): Organizes and processes the agenda for all forms of study at the faculty, except for doctoral studies.
 - Office of Research, Science, and Doctoral Studies: Manages the agenda associated with the faculty's research activities and doctoral studies.

- International Relations Office: Manages the faculty's international cooperation agenda, including study abroad programs and staff mobility.
- Project Center: Manages the agenda related to project activities, contract research, and technology transfer.
- PR Department: Handles public relations and media relations.
- Maintenance Department (Building Management): Manages the FTZ buildings.

- (2) The Dean's Office is managed by the Faculty Secretary. The Secretary provides methodological guidance to the Department Secretaries and the heads of other FTZ organizational units.
- (3) The Office of Research, Science, and Doctoral Studies, the Academic Administration Office, the International Relations Office, and the PR Department are methodologically managed by the respective Vice-Deans.
