Decision on the establishment of a "Research Ethics Committee"

Preamble

In accordance with the long-term strategic objectives of the Faculty of Tropical AgriSciences (FTZ), Czech University of Life Sciences (CZU), which are the promotion of excellence in research, the protection of research participants and the environment, and the observance of national and international standards of ethical conduct, and knowing that academic rights and freedoms are linked to the observance of general and professional ethics, I hereby establish the Research Ethics Committee (hereinafter referred to as the "Committee") as of 1 July 2025.

Article 1

Establishment of the Committee

1. On the basis of the internal regulations of the CZU, the strategic documents of the FTZ and the commitment to responsible research, the Research Ethics Committee (hereinafter referred to as the "Committee") is hereby established as an advisory and supervisory body of the Dean of the FTZ CZU.
2. The main mission of the Committee is to promote ethical research and to assess research project proposals carried out under the auspices of the FTZ CZU, with the aim of ensuring compliance with ethical, legal and professional standards.
3. The scope of the Committee covers employees and students of FTZ CZU, or external researchers whose research is carried out in cooperation with FTZ CZU.
4. The Committee is composed of six members and its members are appointed and dismissed by the Dean of FTZ CZU. The chairman is usually the Vice-Dean for Science, Research and Doctoral Studies of FTZ CZU.
5. Within 2 months after the first meeting, the Committee prepares the "Statute and Rules of Procedure of the Research Ethics Committee", which, once approved, becomes the standard for the Committee's proceedings.

Article 2
