

We are looking for you for the location Nairobi / Kenya:

Nutritionist for Sustainable Food Supply (m/f/d) as an Integrated Specialist

Here you are in demand: The research group Food Environment and Consumer Behaviour at the International Center for Tropical Agriculture (CIAT) needs your expertise to better understand the interactions between city and country and between agricultural producers and urban consumers of food. The aim is to work with policymakers and private sector leaders to create regional urban-surrounding food systems that provide access to nutritious, healthy and affordable food for resource-poor consumer groups. The regional focus of the work is in eastern and southern Africa.

THESE ARE YOUR TASKS:

- Development of innovative approaches to improving the food situation through the ecological, social and economic optimisation of food systems, taking into account possible trade-offs
- Development of evidence-based analysis methods for interactions between changes in food systems and the nutritional situation of consumers
- Preparation of studies on the situation of approximation systems in selected African urban centres as a basis for policy advice
- Support in the preparation of quotations and project funding to further complement the research portfolio of African food systems
- Strengthening and actively participating in local and regional networking with relevant partners

HERE'S WHAT YOU'RE BRINGING:

- Completed university studies in nutrition sciences or other discipline (e.B. anthropology of food, social sciences, agricultural sociology, geography, development or environmental economics), which qualified for the tasks, ideally obtained a doctorate
- Experience in system research to ensure sustainable nutrition and in quantitative and qualitative agricultural research
- Leadership experience and knowledge in policy consulting
- Experience in evaluating approaches and methods of scaling effects
- Very good English

THIS IS WHAT WE OFFER YOU:

- Varied activity with personal responsibility in an international environment
- Cooperation with other development cooperation organisations
- Professional preparation for foreign deployment
- before leaving vaccination offer against COVID-19
- Placement to local employer as integrated specialist for an initial two years - an extension is possible
- Attractive monthly grants for local salary and social benefits

Country-specific information can be obtained from the Foreign Office <https://www.auswaertiges-amt.de/de/ReiseUndSicherheit> and via the country information portal www.liportal.de.

Note: the job offer is up-to-date, there is no application deadline.

ABOUT US:

The Centre for International Migration and Development (CIM) is the ideal partner for you on the way to a responsible and development-relevant task. We provide highly qualified staff to employers in Asia, Africa, Latin America and Europe. You can use your knowledge and skills where they are most needed. As a working group of the German Society for International Cooperation (GIZ) GmbH - www.giz.de - and the Federal Employment Agency (BA) - www.arbeitsagentur.de - the CIM has been combining development and labour market policy expertise since 1980.

CONTACT:

If you have any questions,
please contact Thomas Piecha ++49 (0)6196 79-3571

Job ID:

P0092V050

Location:

Nairobi

Type of activity:

Integrated specialist

field:

Food security, agriculture

published:

22.04.2021

employer:

International Center for Tropical Agriculture (CIAT)